FISHERIES ADMINISTRATIVE

ORDER NO. 1-2

March 5, 1969

SUBJECT: Establishment of a Fishery Station at Calauag, Quezon.

46-2-3-21

Section 1. Authority. Pursuant to the second paragraph of Section 3, Republic Act No. 3512, entitled, "An Act Creating A Fisheries Commission, Defining Its Powers, Duties and Functions, And Appropriating Funds Therefore", there is hereby established a Fishery Station at Calauag, Quezon.

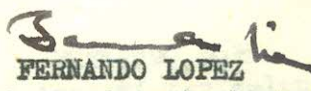

Section 2. Objectives. The objectives for the establishment of a Fishery Station at Calauag, Quezon, are as follows:

(1) To effectively implement the enforcement of existing fishery laws, rules and regulations particularly on illegal fishing.

(2) To facilitate extension work in the operation of modern methods of fishing, to conduct inspection and investigation of fishponds, to assist private parties in matters concerning fisheries, and whether practicable, to disseminate such information, studies and findings made by the Philippine Fisheries Commission.

Section 3. Organization, function and responsibilities. The Fishery Station shall have jurisdiction over the municipalities of (1) Calauag, (2) Lopez, (3) Gumaca, (4) General Luna, (5) Macalelon and, (6) Alabat Island, and shall have an Officer-in-Charge who shall perform the regulatory function within his jurisdiction. Such function to a certain limit shall include the processing of applications for Commercial fishing boat licenses, fishermen's licenses, pearling licenses, fishpond applications, permits or leases, etc. The Officer-in-Charge of the station shall be directly responsible to the Regional Director.

Section 4. This Order shall take effect upon approval by the Secretary of Agriculture and Natural Resources. All provisions of existing Fisheries Administrative Orders inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

FERNANDO LOPEZ
