The following observations were gathered from market personnel and vendors this week:

- Generally, minimal displays of fresh marine commodities were recorded among the monitored retail markets this week. This may be attributed to the occurrence of full moon on 7 December 2022 (Wednesday) as fishes tend to go to the bottom of the ocean during this time caused by the bright light.
- For local-fresh galunggong, limited volume of supplies were still noted at the monitored retail markets this week. The implementation of Closed Fishing Season (CFS) for local galunggong (Decapterus spp.) at Northern Palawan (one of the major source area) last 1 November may be the reason of the limited supply at different fish ports. This resulted to a relatively stable high prevailing retail price at Php240.00-280.00/kg. Presence of other local galunggong variants such as "balsa" (Decapterus macarellus), "babae" (Decapterus russelli) and "burot" (Decapterus kurroides) were noted in some of the monitored retail markets this week.
- Higher demand for imported-frozen galunggong was observed at the monitored retail markets as supply of local galunggong remain low this week. This resulted to more supplies of imported-frozen galunggong noted at the monitored retail markets as vendors look for other alternative for local galunggong. Also, some vendors prefer selling imported-frozen galunggong due to its cheaper price making it easier to sell. There are other imported commodities like pampano, salmon, mackarel, chabeta, tulingan, and matambaka observed this week.
- There is a slight increased in the prevailing retail prices of bangus and tilapia due to higher demand from consumers following the upcoming Christmas Holiday. The prevailing retail prices are at Php160-180.00/kg and Php120-140/kg this week. According to vendors, expect the prices to increased as more demand will be noted this month. Most of the available supply of bangus were small and large-sized. There is a Php20-30.00/kg price difference between live and fresh-chilled tilapia.
- The supply of alumahan remained unpredictable with supply not available all the time. This may be due to the implementation of CFS for sardines, herrings and mackarels at Visayan Sea last November 15.
- Top fishery commodities in the eighteen (18) monitored retail markets are sourced mainly from the following areas:
 - Bangus - Bulacan, Pangasinan
 - Tilapia - Batangas, Pampanga
 - Local Galunggong - Navotas & Malabon Fish Ports
 - Alumahan - Malabon Fish Port
- Low influx of buyers was continuously observed among the monitored markets today. As a result, vendors are coping by selling lower volumes and limited varieties of fishery commodities to ensure that all supplies are sold out by the end of the day. Meanwhile, some vendors are opening on an alternate day schedule or during market days (Friday-Sunday) where there are more people in the monitored markets.
- Market administrators continue to strictly implement precautionary safety measures in the monitored markets to ensure the consumers and vendors safety and avoid the further spread of highly infectious COVID-19 OMICRON variant in accordance with the General Community Quarantine- Alert Level 1 guidelines. Among these measures are the mandatory wearing of face masks, social distancing and regular schedule of cleaning and disinfection in the markets, and among others.

Fluctuation in the prices of the top fifteen (15) and other commodities is influenced by a number of factors such as the commodity's size, quality, volume of supply, source area, as well as the weather condition and other natural phenomena.
