Remarks/Market Observations:	The following observations were gathered from market personnel and vendors this week: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Minimal displays of fresh-marine commodities were still noted among the monitored retail markets due to the effects of fullmoon this week. The bright moonlight causes fishes to stay in the bottom of the ocean making it harder for them to catch. For local-fresh galunggong, most of the monitored retail markets were noted with available supply this week. This may be attributed to the lifting of Closed Fishing Season (CFS) for local galunggong (Decapterus spp.) at Northern Palawan last 1 Feb 2023. Nonetheless, supply were observed to be still minimal and not abundant, resulting to a relatively high prevailing retail price of Php280.00/kg this week. There are other local galunggong variants such as "balsa" (Decapterus macarellus), "babae" (Decapterus russelli) and "burot" (Decapterus kurroides) were noted in some of the monitored retail markets this week. Supply of imported-frozen galunggong remained abundant among the monitored retail markets this week. There are some vendors who still prefer selling imported-frozen galunggong due to its cheaper price making it easier to sell. The prevailing retail price of imported-frozen galunggong remained at Php200.00/kg this week. There are also other imported commodities like pampano, salmon mackarel, salmon, chabeta, tulingan, and matambaka observed this week. For alumahan, the supply still remain limited at the monitored retail markets this week due to the ongoing implementation of Closed Fishing Season in Visayan Sea for sardines, mackarels, and herrings last Nov 15. This resulted to an increase in the prevailing retail price at Php400.00/kg sourced mainly from Malabon and Lucena, Quezon. The supply of bangus remained stable and sufficient among the monitored retail markets this week. However, the prevailing retail price remained at a relatively high at Php180.00/kg as supplies were mostly sourced from Pangasinan. The prevailing retail price of tilapia remained at Php150.00/kg but the supply still remained stable and sufficient among the monitored retail markets this week. According to fish producers, this may be attributed to the increase in price of feeds. There is still a Php20-30.00/kg price difference between live and fresh-chilled tilapia. Top fishery commodities in the eighteen (18) monitored retail markets are sourced mainly from the following areas: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Bangus - Bulacan, Pangasinan Tilapia - Batangas, Pampanga Local Galunggong - Navotas & Malabon Fish Ports Alumahan - Malabon Fish Port, Lucena Quezon Market administrators continue to strictly implement precautionary safety measures in the monitored markets to ensure the consumers and vendors safety and avoid the further spread of highly infectious COVID-19 OMICRON variant in accordance with the General Community Quarantine- Alert Level 1 guidelines. Among these measures are the mandatory wearing of face masks, social distancing and regular schedule of cleaning and disinfection in the markets, and among others.
