The following observations were gathered from market personnel and vendors this week:

- Minimal supplies of fresh marine commodities were noted among the monitored retail markets this week. This may be due to the following : a.) occurrence of the bright moon where fishes tend to go deeper making them harder to catch and b.) inclement weather condition with heavy rains and strong winds brought about by typhoon "Betty" resulting to hampered fishing operations of fisherfolks.
- Nonetheless, the supplies of local-fresh galunggong lakaki (Decapterus macrosoma) remained ample in all monitored retail markets this week. This resulted to a prevailing retail price of Php200.00/kg and have been stable for the past few weeks. All sizes were observed and were mainly sourced from Palawan and Navotas & Malabon Fish Ports. There are also other local galunggong variants like "balsa" (Decapterus macarellus), "babae" (Decapterus russelli) and "burot" (Decapterus kurroides) recorded in some of the monitored retail markets this week.
- There is still limited volume of imported-frozen galunggong this week due to the ample supply of local galunggong which is more preferred by consumers/buyers. Specifically, only three (3) retail markets namely, Muñoz, Guadalupe, and Polo Markets was noted with available supplies this week. The prevailing retail price of imported-frozen galunggong is at Php140-240/kg this week. There were imported-frozen commodities like pampako, salmon mackarel, pusit kalawang, and tulingan were still observed in the market.
- For medium-sized alumahan, ample volume of supplies were noted among the monitored retail markets this week resulting to a stable prevailing retail price of alumahan at Php300.00/kg this week. Price may vary depending to the size, freshness, and source area of the commodity. Most of the supplies were sourced from Malabon and Navotas Fish ports and all sizes were available.
- No changes were observed in the prevailing retail price of bangus at Php160.00/kg this week. This may be due to the stable and sufficient supplies at the market which were mostly sourced from Bulacan and Pangasinan. Most of the fish vendors in Quinta, Tandang Sora, Galas and Kamuning markets were observed selling large bangus due to its higher demand from the consumers/buyers.
- Most of the supplies recorded among the monitored retail markets were still sourced from Batangas which started since 3rd week of April. According to fish vendors, higher wholesale price were observed for tilapia sourced from Pampanga compared from Batangas. As a result, the prevailing retail price of tilapia remained relatively high at Php140.00/kg this week. As reported by region 3, the increase in the cost of feed mill resulted to fish farmers of tilapia from Pampanga opting to stop or reduce their operations until their profit margins are acceptable for them. There is still a Php20-30.00/kg price difference between live and fresh-chilled tilapia.
- Top fishery commodities in the eighteen (18) monitored retail markets are sourced mainly from the following areas:
 - Bangus - Bulacan, Pangasinan
 - Tilapia - Batangas, Pampanga
 - Local Galunggong - Navotas & Malabon Fish Ports
 - Alumahan - Navotas & Malabon Fish Port
- According to vendors, low influx of buyers were continuously noted among the monitored retail markets this week. As a result, vendors are coping by selling lower volumes and limited varieties of fishery commodities to ensure that all supplies are sold out by the end of the day. Also, some vendors were only opening on an alternate day schedule or during market days.

Fluctuation in the prices of the top fifteen (15) and other commodities is influenced by a number of factors such as the commodity's size, quality, volume of supply, source area, as well as the weather condition and other natural phenomena.
