SUPPLY, DELIVERY, AND FABRICATION OF VARIOUS FISHING BOATS FOR UPGRADING AND CAPACITATING MUNICIPAL FISHERFOLK NATIONWIDE

UPGRADING AND CAPACITATING MUNICIPAL FISHERFOLKS THROUGH THE ACQUISITION AND ALLOCATION OF FIFTY-TWO (52) UNITS SMALL TO MEDIUM SCALE COMMERCIAL FISHING BOATS AND COMMUNITY BUILDING

I. INTRODUCTION

The Philippines is an archipelagic country endowed with rich marine biodiversity supporting many marine-related activities that contribute massively to the country's economy. Fisheries are an essential aspect of the agricultural sector of the Philippines as it provides food and livelihood to a large population of Filipinos (Barut, 1997). At current prices, fishing and agriculture contributed P248.47 billion (12.7%) to the national economy in 2021, ranking third among all agricultural Gross Value Added (GVA). At constant 2018 prices, its share of PhP 223.52 billion (12.59%) was the second largest (BFAR Fisheries Profile 2021).

Meanwhile, the Philippine Constitution guarantees the protection of the rights of subsistence fishermen and preferential use of the communal marine and fishing resources, both inland and offshore, through appropriate technology and research, adequate financial, production, and marketing assistance, and other services (Article 7, Section VII of the 1987 PH Constitution). The amended Fisheries Code (R.A. 8550 as amended by R.A. 10654) also declared as a policy the protection of the rights of fisherfolk, specially of the local communities with priority to municipal fisherfolk, in the preferential use of the municipal waters, and to provide support to the fishery sector, primarily to the municipal fisherfolk, including women and youth sectors, through appropriate technology and research, adequate financial, production, construction of post-harvest facilities, marketing assistance, and other services.

Likewise, the objectives of the Fisheries Code include sustainably managing the country's fishery and aquatic resources, alleviating poverty and providing supplementary livelihood to municipal fisherfolk. It also declares to adopt a flexible policy towards attaining food security in response to changes in demographic trends for fish, emerging trends in the trade of fish and other aquatic products in domestic and international markets, and the law of supply and demand.

In line with the above, the President of the Philippines and concurrently the Secretary of the Department of Agriculture, President Ferdinand Romualdez Marcos, Jr., in his recent State of the Nation Address, emphasized the main drivers for growth and employment would be in the agriculture and fisheries sector. It has been said that one of his administration's top priorities is to provide farm-market inputs through financial and technological support to maximize the capacity of the agriculture and fisheries sector in order to boost local food production and lessen the impact of the inflation rate on food commodities and ensure food security.

The municipal fisheries subsector also referred to as sustenance or small-scale fisheries, is traditionally simple, low input-low productivity that involves using small fishing boats of 3 gross tons or less, with or without engines. These boats are traditionally made of dugouts with wooden/plywood planks, limited capacity, and efficiency.

To date, there are more than 265,000 municipal fishing boats registered in the BoatR system. However, these boats may be considered inadequate, with their operations confined in shallow nearshore/coastal waters and limited capacity and efficiency of applied fishing technologies. For example, while small pelagic fish species are usually found in shallow and coastal, including municipal waters, the municipal fisheries subsector only contributes 40% of the production, which may imply a significant proportion of the commercial catches of small pelagic may have been caught in municipal waters. In addition, many fishing areas in the country, particularly in the major tuna fishing grounds in the Pacific Seaboard, West Philippine Sea, and Sulu Sea, are generally characterized by relatively deeper and rough seas, which may require bigger and upgraded fishing boats for the municipal fisherfolk for improved efficiency and safety and to be able to adequately benefit from fish resources including tuna and other pelagic fish resources.

With the above, the DA-BFAR is implementing the program on Capacitating Municipal Fisherfolk that aims to improve the capacity of municipal fisherfolk to improve their productivity/efficiency by providing or equipping them with bigger and upgraded fishing boats, including the proposed additional 52 units of tuna handlines and bagnet fishing boats. To achieve project sustainability and increased income, this project would be implemented in selected fisheries management areas for fisherfolk cooperatives or associations and empower beneficiaries in cooperative development and management.

II. OBJECTIVES:

The project aims to contribute to increasing fish production and attain sustainable fish production, and improve the socio-economic well-being of municipal fisherfolk, specifically the following:

- 1) To build/fabricate and award 52 units of 62-footer FRP boats until December 2023;
- 2) To capacitate 52 Fisherfolk Cooperatives/Associations with at least 2,080 fisherfolk beneficiaries;
- 3) To contribute at least 816 mt of fish by the end of 2023 and 2,440 mt of fish annually thereafter; and,

- 4) To improve municipal fisherfolk capacity in managing fishing projects, including fishing and cooperative operations, including entrepreneurial/business skills, improving fisherfolk income commencing 2023.

III. SCOPE OF THE PROJECT

The project primarily involves the acquisition for the supply, delivery, and fabrication of fifty-two (52) fishing boats, comprised of six (6) bagnets and forty-six (46) handline boats (Fiberglass) for upgrading and capacitating municipal fisherfolk nationwide.

This trial could be substituted by the data of the Engine manufacturer, who should improve the data regarding maximum continuous rating (without time limit that does not overload engine) as well as peak rating.

2. DISPLACEMENT TRIALS

Displacement trial shall correspond to the entire boat with Estimated/ Assumed weights on board, as well as the appropriate load of fuel, and the entire crew.

3. PRELIMINARY BOAT DOCK TRIAL

These will be performed with the boats afloat and will comprise the following trials:

- a. Review of hull and installations: The hull and installations shall be checked for fulfillment of the requirements of the Contract Technical Provisions.

- b. Main Engine Start-Up Trials: When the engines have been shut down for at least 5 hours, 3 startups will be performed on each engine. There will be an interval of a few minutes between each start up.

4. PRELIMINARY SEA TRIAL

These will be performed navigating at sea and will comprise of the following:

- a. Maneuvering Trial: Change of regime trials shall be performed at desired speed and heading in astern and ahead test run.
- b. Endurance Test
- c. Load Test

5. FINAL SEA TRIAL

- a. Progressive Trial: A series of progressive trials will be performed, varying the rpm in the main engines ranging from the minimum allowable to the maximum revolutions.

These will be performed with the boat during the displacement trial and with the good weather condition.

- b. Speed Trials: These shall be performed at the rpm corresponding to the drive rating. The average speed will be calculated over 3 runs of the measured "mile". One run in each direction, then calculating the average giving double weights to the two intermediary runs.
- c. Consumption Trial: To be performed with the main engine operating at a speed as close as possible to 100%. The cruising speed of the boat will be deduced from the data obtained during the progressive trial.
- d. Data to be recorded: During the course of the above trials, the following data will be recorded:
 - Temperature of the surroundings and freshwater for cooling, prior to the cooler
 - Exhaust temperatures
 - Lube temperatures
 - Lube pressures
 - Main engine revolutions
- e. Inspections: Once the trial is completed, machinery and equipment will be inspected, correcting any irregularities present, repeating the trials if necessary.

7. INSPECTION

In addition, the BFAR shall validate the following.

- Check that the boat builders deliver the boats to the BFAR and project sites, in the conditions which were specified in the contract.
- Check that the boat builder delivers to the BFAR the equipment, materials, machinery, stipulated in the TOR/Contract.
- Check and inspection of all technical points that may arise during the warranty period.

VIII. TECHNICAL GUARANTEE

The BAC Secretariat will receive the submitted information through Google Forms and will generate a Bid Receipt page for the official time of submission of all bidders, which can be saved or printed.

Bidders may modify their Bid at any time before the deadline for the submission and receipt of bids. Bidders shall send another Bid equally secured, properly identified, and labelled as a “modification” of the previously submitted. The time indicated in the latest Bid receipt page generated shall be the official time of submission. Bids submitted after the deadline shall not be accepted.

The BAC Secretariat will not be able to access the documents until the day of the Bid Opening.

VII. BID OPENING PROCESS

The BAC, with the assistance of the Secretariat and Technical Working Group (TWG), shall conduct bid opening via Zoom. Bidders are encouraged to attend the bid opening online. The passwords for the folders (ZIP) and the files (.PDF) shall be disclosed by the bidders only during actual bid opening which may be done via Zoom.

The Secretariat will ask the bidder, who choose to attend via Zoom, the corresponding password of their Bid during the bid opening itself. The official representative of the bidder shall respond promptly in the same chat box with the passwords when prompted. Bidders are given within five (5) minutes to respond with the passwords. If the bidder does not provide or respond with the password within five (5) minutes, from prompting, it will result in disqualification and the BAC shall move on to the next bid, if any.

The bidder shall first disclose the password for the compressed folder (ZIP file) containing the Eligibility & Technical documents, second disclose the password for the Eligibility & Technical document (.PDF file). The Secretariat will share the screen via Zoom during accessing the submitted Bid.

If the bidder passed the Eligibility & Technical requirements, the second password-protected compressed folder containing the Financial Documents and the files contained therein shall be opened in the same manner as the password of the eligibility documents as described above. In no case will a bidder disclose the passwords for the financial folder and the files prior to being declared eligible based on the evaluation of the eligibility documents.

The bidder is given only three (3) attempts to disclose the password per compressed folder (ZIP) and .PDF file to open the documents. If the bidder fails to provide the correct password after the third attempt, their Bid will no longer be considered. The Secretariat shall take and print a screenshot of such inquiries and responses to form part of the records and all incidents should be recorded in the minutes.

In the event that the BAC cannot access the submitted electronic copy of the Bid, the BAC will proceed with the opening of the ORIGINAL HARD COPY.
