Remarks/Market Observations:	The following observations were gathered from market personnel and vendors this week: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Due to Typhoon Carina disrupting fishing activities in the country this week, a decrease availability of fresh marine commodities was observed in all monitored retail markets. As a result, the prevailing retail price of medium-sized local galunggong lalaki (Decapterus macrosoma) increased from Php240.00/kg last week to Php260.00/kg today. Market enumerators attributed the price increase to the limited supply from wholesale markets caused by unfavorable weather conditions that hampered fishing operations. Despite of this, availability of local-fresh galunggong-lalaki was still sufficient in all monitored retail markets today. As medium-sized local-fresh galunggong-lalaki (D. macrosoma), gradually increasing prevailing retail price. Presence of imported-frozen galunggong-lalaki slowly increasing availability. Markets such as Mega-Q, Farmers, Balintawak and Maypajo Caloocan recorded to have this at prevailing retail price. The recorded prevailing retail price of medium-sized local-fresh galunggong lalaki was Php190.00/kg - Php280.00/kg sourced mainly from Navotas Fish Port (wholesale). Still for this week, minimal availability of medium-sized alumahan (Rastrelliger kanagurta), was observed among the monitored retail markets today. The supply was also affected due to the occurrence of Typhoon Carina this week. Meanwhile, aquaculture commodities such as bangus (Chanos chanos) and tilapia (Oreochromis niloticus) showed consistent and adequate supply across all monitored markets this week. However, some fish vendors, particularly in Commonwealth market, reported low demand for bangus specifically sourced from Pangasinan. Consumers were hesitant to purchase due to reported fish kills in Bolinao, Pangasinan. Major source areas of the top fishery commodities in the monitored markets are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Retail <ol style="list-style-type: none"> Bangus - Bulacan Tilapia - Batangas Local Galunggong - Malabon Fish Port Imported Galunggong - Navotas Fish Port Alumahan - Malabon Fish Port
