The following observations were gathered from market personnel and vendors this week:

- Overall, minimal but sufficient supplies of marine commodities were observed among the monitored retail markets this week. This could be due to the Northeast Monsoon affecting Northern and Central Luzon; and Shearline affecting eastern portion of Southern Luzon. Despite this, sufficient availability were still observed, however not in good quality of mixed of newly unloaded supplies and old stocks from previous market days was noted today. With this, for the medium-sized galunggong-lalaki (Decapterus macrosoma), limited availability was still noted this week and mostly old stock from previous market days at Php280.00/kg, sourced primarily from Malabon Fish Port.
- On the other hand, continuous availability of the medium-sized imported-frozen galunggong-lalaki (D. macrosoma) was still observed among monitored retail markets this week. Its sufficient availability makes it more frequently observed among the monitored retail markets compared to local-fresh galunggong-lalaki. The prevailing retail prices of this commodity varied from Php240.00/kg, Php280.00/kg, and Php300.00/kg, sourced chiefly from Navotas Fish Port.
- For medium-sized alumahan (Rastrelliger kanagurta), limited display of the said commodity was observed in most of the monitored retail markets today. Only seven out of seventeen (17) monitored retail markets have recorded to have this commodity at prevailing retail price (three or more stalls seen to have display). The prevailing retail price was recorded at Guadalupe and Polo Public Market at Php240.00/kg, sourced primarily from Malabon Fish Port.
- For aquaculture commodities such as bangus (Chanos chanos) and tilapia (Oreochromis niloticus), ample and consistent availability of supplies were still observed among the monitored retail markets today.
- Top fishery commodities in the seventeen (17) monitored retail markets are sourced mainly from the following areas:
 - Bangus - Bulacan, Pangasinan
 - Tilapia - Batangas, Pampanga
 - Local Galunggong - Malabon Fish Port
 - Alumahan - Malabon Fish Port
